

REGINA DOMINICAN

THE COLLEGE PREPARATORY CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR WOMEN

(08.11.05)

GCAC honors 26 Regina Dominican student athletes

Some students excel academically, others perform well in sports, and still others manage to excel in both areas. Twenty-six members of Regina Dominican's Class of 2005 proved to be in the latter category. They received the Girls Catholic Athletic Conference (GCAC) All-Conference Academic Award in recognition of their "outstanding academic achievement" while playing on a GCAC varsity sport.

Students received recognition in the following sports:

Basketball: Elisabeth Flaherty and Rachael Picur.

Cross Country: Elizabeth Labuz.

Soccer: Bailey Bartes, Alexandria Elliott, Kerry McGuire, and Sindy Turcios.

Softball: Amanda Angelo, Amanda Bloden, Kristen Greif, and Jenny Sander.

Tennis: Derry Henrick, Jessica Kusack, Mary Paxson, Carolyn Pike and Jeannine Strenk.

Volleyball: Valerie Castillo and Jennifer Pasowicz.

In addition, eight students received recognition for their involvement in two sports: Rebecca Dieschbourg, golf and soccer; Jessica Dudar, volleyball and soccer; Mary Georgevich, basketball and softball; Melissa Hain, volleyball and softball; Jacquelyn Nuber, Elizabeth Nufer, and Lauren Schober, basketball and volleyball; and Emi Rodin, tennis and soccer.
