Graduates honored for language accomplishments

Seven members of Regina Dominican's Class of 2005 were recognized at the close of the 2004-2005 school year for their accomplishments in their study of foreign languages.

Elizabeth Labuz received a Certificat de Reussite for participating in the National French Contest, Level IV.

Kerry McGuire took second place in the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP) Spanish Poetry Contest, Level 5, while Natalie Tuminello came in third place in Level 4 of that contest.

In the Latin Department, Pam Kelly performed Magnum Cum Laude in the First Year National Latin Exam. In the Fourth Year Latin/Poetry National Latin Exam, Brigid Ronan performed Silver Maxima Cum Laude while Elisabeth Flaherty and Sarah Niersbach performed Magna Cum Laude.

Regina Dominican's Foreign Language Department offers a full range of courses in French, Latin, and Spanish, including Advanced Placement (AP) courses in all three languages. Along with teaching foreign languages so vital in our global society, the department strives to instill good communication, understanding and tolerance in Regina Dominican students to prepare them to take their place in the world.
