'Jackie O' to be portrayed at Regina's Book Review

Thanks in part to the special exhibit at the Field Museum, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis is once again a hot topic. Come experience the charm and glamour of the First Lady of Camelot in a personal way – and closer to home.

Barbara Rinella, world-renowned book reviewer and dramatist, will bring Jackie O. to life as she presents Edward Klein's book, Farewell Jackie: A Portrait of Her Final Days. She will be the guest presenter at the Parents' Association Book Review, to be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday, February 23 in Regina Dominican's cafeteria. The evening will begin with dinner and dessert, followed by the presentation.

The cost is $15 per person, and reservations are due by Friday, February 18. For further information or reservations, contact Mrs. Stephanie Garrity, Development Director, at 847-256-7660, ext. 232.

Regina Dominican is located at 701 Locust Road in Wilmette, conveniently off the East Lake Road exit from the south-bound Edens Expressway.
