

REGINA DOMINICAN

THE COLLEGE PREPARATORY CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR WOMEN

(04.07.05)

Music students compete in IHSA contest

Regina Dominican music students brought home 69 sweepstakes points from the Illinois High School Association's (IHSA) State Solo and Ensemble Contest, held March 5 at Grayslake High School.

Receiving a Division I Rating were: senior Dana Olson and juniors Martha Cordeniz and Christina Minich, Female Voice Solo; sophomore Meghan Nally, Flute Solo; senior Hilary Bouxsein, Trombone Solo; and sophomore Amelia Salutz, Violin Solo.

The following students received Division II Ratings: seniors Kalyna Durbak and Kaitlyn Schaefer, and juniors Brigid Cremin, Meg Golembiewski and Amanda Pantle, Female Voice Solo; junior Briana Kraus, Flute Solo; junior Katie Bott, Piano Solo; sophomore Meghan Nally, Tuba Solo; junior Karoline Roderer, Violoncello Solo; senior Young Kim and junior Jiyeon Lee, Mixed Woodwind Ensemble; juniors Emily Forester and Catherine Grosso, String Ensemble; and sophomores Jordan Roti and Tracy Windlinger, Treble Ensemble.

Music students at Regina Dominican have ample opportunities to develop and showcase their musical talents. Music groups include the Chamber Choir, Regina Singers, Regina Chorale, and the Orchestra. Music students also perform in such events as the Fall Musical, the Spring Benefit Performance, and the Christmas and Spring Concerts.