

REGINA DOMINICAN

THE COLLEGE PREPARATORY CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR WOMEN

(05.05.05)

Class Council officers and representatives elected

Regina Dominican students looked ahead to 2005-2006 recently when they elected Class Council officers and representatives as their leaders in the coming school year. Each Class Council plans activities for the class throughout the year, as well as specified all-school events.

Newly elected officers for next year's Senior Class Council are: Sara Berrafato, president; Lauren Nawrocki, vice president; Therese Dombai, secretary; Erin Guevarra, treasurer; Katie Hurley, social chair; and Annie Tierney, service chair. Working with them will be homeroom representatives Katelyn Draths, Constance Grandt, Danielle Herberg, Elyse Keafer, Kara Kinnear and Nancy Zimmer.

The Senior Class Council, working with moderator Mrs. Verna Allworth, English teacher, plans the Senior Social, the Senior Fund-Raiser, and the prom.

The 2005-2006 Junior Class Council include officers Michelle Maier, president; Amanda Labuz, vice president; Meg Nally, secretary; Caitlin Sander, treasurer; Grace Ansani, social chair; and Nell McGann, service chair. Homeroom representatives will be Samantha Brayer, Samantha Dieschbourg, Lauren Ryczek, Margaret Shinnick, Mary Kate Smyrniotis and Molly Strenk.

Working with Spanish teacher Mrs. Julia Gomez-Fernandez, their moderator, the Junior Class Council will organize the Junior Social, the Fall Fling, and the end-of-the-year Junior/Senior Celebration.

Officers for next year's Sophomore Class Council are: Krystle Harvey, president; Kelly Grant, vice president; Katie Pins, secretary; Katherine Nickele, treasurer; Cara George, social chair; and Lauren Gutierrez, service chair. Representing their homerooms will be Tahra Eissa, Desiré Knorr, Samantha McHale, Molly Mostyn and Sarah Rosenak. Taylor Popplewell is an alternate.

The Sophomore Class Council plans the Sophomore Social, as well as the liturgy and reception for Senior Ring Day. Dr. Marissa Porter, Latin teacher, is the Sophomore Class moderator.

Members of the Class of 2009 will elect the Frosh Class Council officers and homeroom representatives early in the 2005-2006 school year. Their responsibilities include planning the Frosh Social and Little Sister/Big Sister activities. Physical education teacher Natalie Rysavy is the Frosh Class Moderator.