

REGINA DOMINICAN

THE COLLEGE PREPARATORY CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR WOMEN

(05.12.05)

Four added to Regina Dominican's French Honor Society

Parlez-vous Français? (Do you speak French?) Four more Regina Dominican students will be able to respond with a rousing and enthusiastic "Oui" now that they've been initiated into the school's chapter of the Société Honoraire de Français, the French Honor Society.

Inducted during a special ceremony on the evening of April 25 were juniors Christina Minich and Ann Romei, as well as sophomores Elizabeth Ave Maria and Amelia Salutz.

Madame Mary Ellen Scandale, French teacher, welcomed parents and other family members to the ceremony and thanked them for supporting their daughters in their studies. Mrs. Kathy Rzany, principal, congratulated the initiates on their accomplishments and encouraged them to continue in their study of the French language.

Officers include seniors Amanda Bloden, president, and Elizabeth Labuz, vice president. Junior Brigid Cremin sang "Ici-bas." Also officiating were French Honor Society members Mary Fox and Lisa Lyons, both seniors, and junior Danielle Le Jeune.

Sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of French, the Société Honoraire de Français aims to stimulate the interest of secondary school students in the study of French and to create an understanding of, and enthusiasm for, the francophone culture.
