

(06.23.05)

74 Regina seniors receive academic honors

Seventy-four Regina Dominican seniors received academic honors in recognition of the high cumulative grade point average they earned throughout their years at the school. The seniors received their special recognition June 2 during Regina Dominican's annual Senior Honors Convocation.

Some 25 seniors were recognized as Superior Scholars, with cumulative grade point averages of 5.0 or above during their four years at Regina. They each received a gold cord, signifying honors with highest distinction. The 25 Superior Scholars of the Class of 2005 are: Amanda Bloden, Hilary Boussein, Rebecca Dieschbourg, Jessica Dudar, Kalyna Durbak, Alexandria Elliott, Elisabeth Flaherty, Mary Georgevich, Camille Goldberg Britton, Jennifer Kemnetz, Elizabeth Labuz, Valerie Lengerich, Rebecca Lyons, Mary Maliakal, Kerry McGuire, Sarah Niersbach, Katie Nitsche, Elizabeth Nufer, Carolyn Pike, Brittany Polson, Mary Quirk, Emi Rodin, Brigid Ronan, Jenny Sander, and Kaitlyn Schaefer.

Receiving Highest Honors, with cumulative grade point averages of 4.5 to 4.99 during their high school years, were 22 seniors: Laura Anichini, Maria Anichini, Carolyn Baker, Jennifer Degnan, Michelle Erwin, Mary Fox, Kristen Greif, Melissa Hain, Shannon Hansen, Allison Hughes, Lisa Lyons, Kathryn McEneely, Kathleen McGann, Kerry Morrissey, Jacquelyn Nuber, Dana Olson, Samantha Ordonez, Mary Paxson, Rachael Picur, Alyssa Rusak, Ashley Spencer, and Jeannine Strenk.

An additional 27 seniors earned High Honors, with cumulative grade point averages of between 4.0 and 4.49. They are: Jessica Afaan, Kelly Ahlfeld, Tiffany Arrate, Kira Baltutis, Therese Barr, Jennifer Bernardi, Emily Carlson, Valerie Castillo, Jennifer Chaput, Michelle Cooper, Felicia Doolin, Gabriella Gobbo, Derry Henrick, Meghan Hogan, Anne Kelley, Pam Kelly, Seul-Ki Kim, Young Kim, Jessica Kusack, Briana Lawson, Jennifer Pasowicz, Casey Quinn, Sharon Rigor, Lauren Schober, Natalia Sobremente, Natalie Tuminello, and Mollie Wegerson.