Benefit Performance to focus on American music

Regina Dominican's performing arts students will thank the school's donors with a slice of Americana as they present "An American Celebration," the 47th Annual Spring Benefit Performance, at 7 p.m. Sunday, March 13 in the school auditorium, 701 Locust Road in Wilmette. The gala event will begin at 5:30 with a reception in the cafeteria.

Featured in the Spring Benefit Performance will be members of Regina Dominican's music groups: the Orchestra, the Chamber Singers, the Regina Singers and the Regina Chorale, all led by music director Mr. David Hiatt.

The Spring Benefit Performance is Regina Dominican's musical "thank you" to donors of the Annual Fund Drive, which seeks to raise enough money to offset the difference between the year's tuition and the cost of educating the school's 420 students. This year's Spring Benefit Chairs are Peggy Hulseman Kovach '79 and Joe Kovach, parents of junior Kaitlin Kovach and sophomores Elizabeth and Greta Kovach. Co-Chairs are Martin and Stephanie Fernholz, parents of junior Katherine Fernholz.
